

Action

Would you like to

- ...carry out an employment project tailored to your abilities and interests?
- ...develop your skills and eventually enter the labour market?
- ...undertake a pathway to employment?

Get ready for Action!

Action is for persons who

- have difficulties preventing them from entering the labour market
- are motivated to acquire skills or adopt behaviours that are conducive to labour market success
- wish to progress professionally
- want to participate in an active employment measure

With Action, you can

- resolve or learn to deal with difficulties that are hindering your professional development
- gain socio-professional autonomy
- increase your access to the labour market
- receive a $130 support allowance in addition to your basic benefits

Eligibility

- Action is exclusively for beneficiaries of social assistance or solidarity programs.
- To be eligible for Action, you must meet an employment assistance officer for an evaluation and a reference to an organization.
